Integrating Substance Use Disorder and Health Care Services in an Era of Health Reform (Technology Transfer Work Group)

Stanley Sacks, PhD and Heather Gotham, PhD (Co-Chairs) with Kim Johnson, Howard Padwa, PhD, and Deena Murphy, PhD

Outline for Concurrent Session at the ATTC Network Forum November 5, 2014

1. Background

- Impact of the Affordable Care Act
- Implications for the Addiction Workplace
- Importance of the Addiction Technology Transfer Center (ATTC) Network

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) is destined to have a profound effect on the delivery of healthcare nationwide, including treatment for substance use disorders. The ACA requires integration of substance abuse, mental health, and healthcare services.

2. Interventions

- Brief Description
- Examples
- Role of the ATTC
- Evidence-Based Treatments for Substance Use Disorders

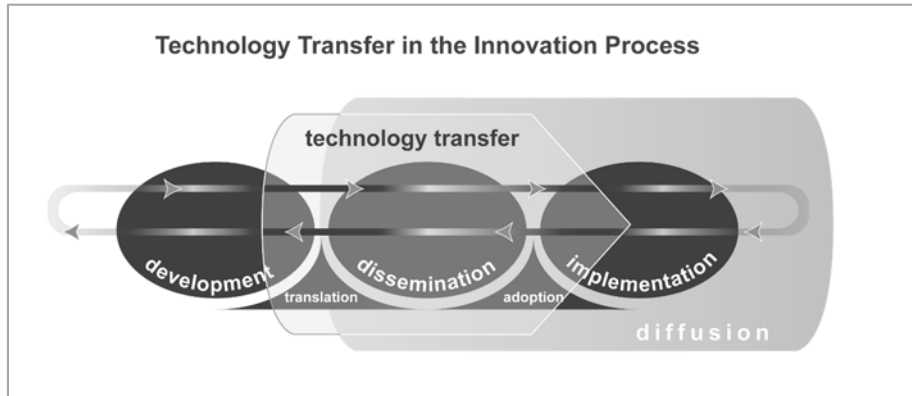

1. Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT)
2. Medication-Assisted Treatment (MAT)
3. Technology-Assisted Care (TAC)
4. Motivational Interviewing
5. Motivational Incentives
6. Trauma Informed Care (TIC)
7. Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT)

3. Models

- Emphasis on Integration of Addiction and Healthcare Services
- Conceptual Models
- Examples

4. Technology Transfer

- ATTC Technology Transfer Model
- NIATx
- NDRI's Assessment-Implementation Support Approach

5. Evidence

- Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT)
- Medication-Assisted Treatment
- Technology-Assisted Care

6. Conclusion: Why the ATTC?

- Standing
- Programs
- Processes

The ATTC Network is the “go to” resource as states, providers, and the addiction workforce embarks on change under the ACA. The Network has the standing, programs, and processes to train the addiction workforce and guide the integration of addiction and healthcare services.

7. Discussion Questions

- Are there any noteworthy gaps?
- Do you know of any recent developments (in policy, programs, practice or research) that should be included?
- How do we make the strongest case for the role of the ATTC Network in fostering integrated care?
